Leg 1: Cultivating a passion for missions, team life and Jesus

The journey will be a blend of On-Campus training and ‘On-the-Field’ adventure experiences. We will start in January in Jeffrey’s Bay, South Africa, with intentional and adventurous missions training.

What to expect On Campus:

- An awakening of a passion for missions and God’s work in the nations
- Formation of cross-cultural insights
- Learning to value the Holy Spirit as the key to all missions work
- Character building
- Bible knowledge and application training
- Inspiration from missionaries/fieldworkers that were, or still are, on the field

On The Field Adventure - What to look forward to:

The time of training on campus will flow over into a cross-cultural real-life mission experience in a rural setting in South Africa (e.g. somewhere in the Transkei). The objective is to learn and apply what you learned by serving alongside a community in a local village environment.
Leg 2: Discipleship as the foundation of missions

During the 2nd training phase, you will participate in introductory church planting and discipleship training.

What to expect On Campus:

- Enabling you to engage in the discipleship of others
- Engaging in a fresh way of thinking about church and community
- Learn about the body of Christ and God’s great commission

On The Field Adventure - What to look forward to:

Embark on a journey to an East-African country (Uganda, Rwanda, Kenya, Tanzania and Ethiopia) or Southern-African country (Namibia, Zambia, Botswana etc.) to experience first-hand and participate in the dynamic potential of a discipleship movement.

Leg 3: The Holy Spirit as the key to outreach

During this 3rd phase of the training journey you will be equipped and empowered to minister in and with the Holy Spirit.

What to expect On Campus:

- Going with the Holy Spirit is absolutely crucial
- Learn how to use the gifts of the Holy Spirit
- Power of Prayer
- Learn more about world religions

missions.globalchallenge.org
On The Field Adventure - What to look forward to:

Depart on a 3-month travel journey to a region like the Middle East (Egypt, Jordan, Turkey etc.) and Europe. On this journey participants will learn how to navigate their travels in a foreign country. Learn how to be dependant on the Holy Spirit in guidance and during ministry. Use the gifts of the Spirit by praying for people along the way and looking for opportunities to have discovery bible studies.

Leg 4: Love like Jesus loved

The final phase of the journey is the climax of the experience and the culmination of everything you have learned throughout the year.

What to expect On Campus:

- Complete training in the Live to Love course
- Be challenged to love God and others unconditionally
- Complete a Veritas Bible College course

On The Field Adventure - What to look forward to:

Participants will depart on your final adventure to either South-east Asia (Thailand, Vietnam, Malaysia, etc.) or South America (Brazil, Peru, Bolivia, etc.) for a 2 month journey. You and your team will be challenged to love the world like Jesus did. The final chapter will also push you to apply what you have learned throughout the year.

The end of the journey: Reflecting and Debriefing

After you return from your last adventure of the year of training will be concluded with a couple of week’s of reflecting (debriefing) and thanksgiving at the Global Challenge campus in Jeffreys Bay, South Africa.